

Psalm 46

Lucas Moyer

1. The Lord's our re - fuge, our strength, our might. He's al - ways pre - sent to
2. The choicest wa - ter from the un - flawed; the Ho - ly place of the
3. The Lord of ho - sts is on our side. The God of Ja - cob is help our plight. We will not fear, though all earth should change, or Most High God. The Lord with - in shall not be with - drawn, He'll where we hide. Be - hold the works of the mi - ghty Lord Who mountains slip in oceans rage. Though wa - ters roar with res - cue us when morning dawns. The na - tions roar and smites with pow - er and dis - cord, yet He makes wars on [vs. 1] wa - ters roar with

4

7

10

foa - my tide, though mountains quake with swelling pride;
kingdoms shake, but at His voice the earth does break.
earth to cease, He shatters wea - pons and so makes peace!

moun - tains quake with

Chorus:

13

"Peace be still and know I AM, I will be hon - ored in ev - ery land!" The 17

Lord of hosts is on our side, the God of Ja - ob be glor-i- fied.